Prayers of the People

Intercessor

Today we celebrate the manifestation of God's love to all nations, both Jew and Gentile. With confidence let us bring our petitions to God's altar, saying: LORD, hear our prayer.

For God's people throughout the world and our leaders, Let us pray for the church—especially Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Katharine, our Assisting Bishop; and Timothy, our Vicar—that they might spread the good news of God's indiscriminate love, let us pray to the Lord.

LORD, hear our prayer

For each other and especially those on our prayer list, the people of God gathered in this place, that we might always proclaim with our lives the praise of the Lord and so be channels of the call to God's promise and plan, let us pray to the Lord.

LORD, hear our prayer

For our Jewish brothers and sisters and all who glory in the Star of David, that together we might see in the Star of Bethlehem not a symbol of division but a call to reconciliation, let us pray to the Lord.

LORD, hear our prayer

For our leaders—especially Donald, our president; Jerry, our governor; and Matt, our mayor—For all victims of prejudice and discrimination, be it based on color, nationality, sex, or creed, that the light of Christ might shine as a beacon in the world's darkness; and for gifts of healing and unity, let us pray to the Lord.

LORD, hear our prayer

For our brothers and sisters in need; for the poor, the homeless, the hungry, and the abandoned; for the sick and the dying, that they might find hope and courage in the open arms of the Savior, let us pray to the Lord.

LORD, hear our prayer

Silence

Celebrant: Loving God, we offer you our prayers, some in words, others written in our hearts. Read our hearts; hear our prayers; and continue to shed on us your light, Christ Jesus, who is Lord, this day and forever. Amen*.*

THE GOOD BOOK CLUB

Romans | Epiphany 2019

The Good Book Club is encouraging all Episcopal congregations to read Paul's Letter to the Romans each day during Epiphany (January 7th – March 5th). Martin Luther called Romans, "The chief part of the New Testament, and the very purest gospel." Please plan on participating in the reading of Romans. You can find more information on the Good Book Club at www.goodbookclub.org. We will also be having a weekly discussion group starting Sunday, January 13th at 9:15 a.m. between the two services.

ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING

Sunday January 27, 2019

The Annual Church Meeting will take place in Julian Hall after the 10:15 service on Jan 27, 2019.

ALL ARE INVITED!

There will be a pot-luck luncheon, and we will distribute the Annual Report, vote for new Bishop's Committee (vestry) members, as well as vote for our delegates to the convention.

THE SEARCH IS ON...
PERHAPS FOR YOU?

We are looking for individuals to provide leadership to our Congregation and also to represent St. Thomas of Canterbury to the larger Church Community.

Each year we are challenged in finding members to answer the call to serve on the Bishop's Committee and roles as Convention Delegates. We are asked to step outside of what is comfortable and try to impact and improve the outside community we are part of.

With our annual meeting scheduled for January 27th, 2019–time of preparation is upon us. Please spread the word and encourage our fellow members to stand and be counted in the congregational leadership to support and build this Church Community at St Thomas. Please be mindful and give prayerful consideration to this opportunity to serve as a member for elections of Bishop Committee Member and / or Convention Delegate. For questions and to apply, contact Fr. Tim at vicar@episcopalchurchtemecula.org

New Ministry at St. Thomas!

"St. Thomas of Canterbury Meals on Wheels"

WoW (Women of Worth) has a new ministry with Michelle Lee at the helm. The ministry "Saint Thomas of Canterbury Meals on Wheels" will provide dinner to church members that are ill, having a medical procedure, or having a difficult time in general, and could use the help with this ministry providing evening meals on a temporary basis. If you would like to sign up to be in the rotation to provide an evening meal, or if you or a church member you know could use the help of this ministry please contact Michelle Lee at (909) 208-9875, or you can email Michelle at mmacneallee@yahoo.com.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING (DOK)

DOK is an order for women who undertake a Rule of Life, incorporating the Rule of Prayer and the Rule of Service. By reaffirmation of the promises made at Baptism and Confirmation, a Daughter pledges herself to a life-long program of prayer, service and evangelism, dedicated to the spread of Christ's Kingdom and the strengthening of the spiritual life of her parish. As a part of their monthly business meetings, they not only conduct business and plan, but study for their own spiritual development as well. The order is open to all women in the Episcopal Church who feel a calling to a deeper spiritual life of prayer, service, and evangelism.

Our St. Thomas Chapter would love to have new members. The meetings are the second Tuesday of the month at 6:00 p.m. in the St. Benedictine Conference room. If you are interested in the order, please see any Daughter of the King: Pam Bowen, President of the St. Thomas Chapter, Jenn Cole, Irene Eisenhut, Sonya Jump, Jackie Klippert, Kay Rather, and Mary Lou Thomas.
(You will know them by the silver cross they wear).

REMOVING OF THE GREENS

Please stay after the 10:15 service to "de-green" the church.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Feeling Alone?

Sometime people choose to be alone, sometimes not. We all know someone who is struggling under the weight of something they didn't ask to have happen, something that life's circumstances have placed on their shoulders through no fault of their own. It could be anything: a loved one has been injured or has become ill and requires care, a hardworking man or woman who has lost a job, relocated or had a falling out with a friend or family mmber. Often we bear these changes in our lives without much support or help. But we're never alone in God's presence.

Our church offers caring Christian ministry to those who are struggling. It isn't just words and prayers. It's someone who can help share your struggles, uplift you and basically be on your team. Life is easier for everyone when even one person is willing to stand by you. That's what Stephen Ministry is about.

For information call Deb Mitchell at 951-440-1919 or Jo Anne Dreyfus at 951-225-8440.
