The Sermon

The Rev. Dr. David Jackson, AHC

A period of silence is kept after the sermon.

AT THE FOOT WASHING

The Celebrant addresses the people by saying

Fellow servants of our Lord Jesus Christ: On the night before his death, Jesus set an example for his disciples by washing their feet, an act of humble service. He taught that strength and growth in the Kingdom of God come not by power, authority, or even miracle, but by such lowly service. We all need to remember his example, but none stand more in need of this reminder than those whom the Lord has called to the ordained ministry.

Therefore, I invite you who share in the royal priesthood of Christ, to come forward, that I may recall whose servant I am by following the example of my Master. But come remembering his admonition that what will be done for you is also to be done by you to others, for “a servant is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.”

You are invited at this time to have your feet washed. You may remove your footwear prior to going to one of the two chairs or you may remove your footwear upon arriving there. After having your feet washed, if you would like to wash the feet of others, simply let the person who washed your feet know that you would like to do so. You are also welcome to stay where you are and experience the foot washing through prayer and contemplation rather than having your feet washed.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor

On this night, the Lord Jesus was handed over to sinners. Let us pray to his Father on behalf of all for whom he died, saying: God, who washed us in the blood of your Son, have mercy upon us.

Clarify your church's insight into your presence in the world, and enable every human being to see in our fellowship the sign of your new covenant. God, who washed us in the blood of your Son, have mercy upon us.

Teach our national and local leaders the power of humility, and enable them to work selflessly for the good of all, especially we pray for Donald our president, Gavin our governor, and Michael our mayor. God, who washed us in the blood of your Son,

have mercy upon us.

Reconcile the divided Christian churches, and grant peace to nations and religious groups hostile to one another. God, who washed us in the blood of your Son,

have mercy upon us.

Heal the bodies of the wounded and diseased. Heal the hearts of those betrayed by their loved ones. God, who washed us in the blood of your Son,

have mercy upon us.

Forgive the sins of this people which calls on you; let the bread we break and the cup we drink save us from evil and free us to obey your word. God, who washed us in the blood of your Son,

have mercy upon us.

Silence

Celebrant: God our Savior, hear the prayers of your family, gathered to proclaim the death of your Son until he comes. Pour forth on all humankind your blessings of life, harmony and true freedom, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
