Prayers of the People

Intercessor

We would be empty without God's gifts, and we would be selfish if we kept them to ourselves. For God's generosity let us pray, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

Teach us to love and share your gift of peace, we pray you, O Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Teach us to love and share your gift of mind, we pray you, O Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Teach us to love and share your gift of life, we pray you, O Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Do not leave us to merchants of war, we pray you, O Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Do not leave us to merchants of lies, we pray you, O Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Do not leave us to merchants of death, we pray you, O Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Teach us to cherish all truth that is not ours, we pray you, O Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Teach us to cherish all life that is not ours, we pray you, O Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Hear our prayers for all in need, especially those on our prayer list, we pray you, O Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

Silence

Celebrant: You enter our lives, O God, by the gift of yourself. It is the way we are to enter yours. Teach us that generosity. Teach it to everyone alive—our brothers and sisters in this world. We pray through Christ, our teacher and brother. Amen.

Sunday, October 6, 2019

Dear Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese of San Diego,

Thank you to all who participated in the ordination service on Saturday, June 15, and to all who have prayed and supported this episcopal transition. I am grateful, honored, and overjoyed to serve you as your bishop. I so look forward to getting to know you and your congregations, and sharing Jesus' fearless love with you and with our communities.

I look forward to visiting you on Sunday, October 6th. A bishop's visit is the visible sign of the unity we share in the Body of Christ, and I anticipate that my visit to you will be one of the chief joys of my episcopal ministry.

Feeling Alone?

Sometime people choose to be alone, sometimes not. We all know someone who is struggling under the weight of something they didn't ask to have happen, something that life's circumstances have placed on their shoulders through no fault of their own. It could be anything: a loved one has been injured or has become ill and requires care, a hardworking man or woman who has lost a job, relocated or had a falling out with a friend or family member. Often we bear these changes in our lives without much support or help. But we're never alone in God's presence.

Our church offers caring Christian ministry to those who are struggling. It isn't just words and prayers. It's someone who can help share your struggles, uplift you and basically be on your team. Life is easier for everyone when even one person is willing to stand by you. That's what Stephen Ministry is about.

For information call Deb Mitchell at 951-440-1919 or Jo Anne Dreyfus at 951-225-8440.
