Prayers of the People

Intercessor

God calls us today to be open to the Word and to one another. Let us open ourselves to all the world in prayer, saying: Lord, have mercy.

For the Church we pray, especially Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Katharine, our Assisting Bishop; and Timothy, our Vicar that we may bring God's Word of life to all in silence, darkness, and despair, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For Saint Thomas of Canterbury Church we pray. That we may grow into the mystery of God's life among and in us, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the world we pray, especially Donald, our President, that nations will come to cooperate for the health and well-being of all, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our community we pray, especially Jerry, our Governor, and Matt, our Mayor. That hospitals and nursing homes may be equipped to deal with our sick and dying, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all in the healing professions we pray. That those who search for cures and those who attend the sick may be strengthened for their tasks, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the sick and dying we pray. That all who have asked for our prayers may know the healing power of God, and that those who die today may not die alone, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all mourners we pray. That all who grieve the coming of death may come to know life in the mercy of God, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Silence

Celebrant: All just and merciful God, you know our wants, and you know our true needs. May you attend to our prayers, direct our hearts in the way of justice and mercy, and enlighten our minds that we may know your holy will. We ask this through the just one, Jesus Christ, your servant and our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the power of the Holy Spirit, our God, forever and ever. Amen.
