PENTECOST

Holy Faith/Santa Fe, Inglewood &
Saint Thomas of Canterbury, Temecula

Sharing a Celebration of the Holy Spirit with Holy Eucharist, Rite Two, Ante-Communion

Let's Take Ten!

As part of our life-long learning, we'll spend a few minutes each week before worship highlighting something about the service, or the source of prayers and mediations.

Holy Faith Episcopal Church/La Iglesia de Santa Fe, Inglewood History, Mission, and Ministry with The Reverend Jennifer Wagner Pavia

Announcements

TOMORROW Saint Thomas of Canterbury's Saint Francis Garden will be open for prayers of lament and mourning, 9 a.m. to Noon. Sacred distancing and masks are required of all individuals coming onto the Patio to pray.

Let's Celebrate the Class of 2020

Sunday afternoon, June 7, we're organizing a Graduation Parade, intending to visit the homes of each of our high school graduates, and bring them our very best wishes with a drive-by parade. We'll plan to gather at the Church parking lot at 1:30, then follow a route that will allow us to celebrate the accomplishments of these young people in style.

So, polish up your coolest ride, tie balloons to the antenna, paint a sign or two, and crank up the radio!

Please let Chantel Blas know you're joining the party so we can be sure you have the planned route and time table beforehand, because we want to stay together and have a reuniting plan if traffic causes us to separate.

Chantel Blas at 650-931-7147.

“Hear the Word of God”

Continuing Tuesday at 2 p.m. Lani-Karyn Jones introduces, then reads, passages of the Bible. This is a time to immerse yourself in the beloved Word, to let it wash over you, and carry you into deeper relationship with God and the human family.

The group is progressing through Paul's Letter to the Ephesians - Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Zoom Meeting ID: 812 1569 2448 No Password Required.

Thank You for keeping your pledge current;

Payments can be made through the mail, or electronically via the Donate button on the Saint Thomas website www.episcopalchurchtemecula.org.

Opening Hymn - Bo Rauch Elohim, Hebrew

All standing as they are able, the Celebrant says

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Richard Ross prays, in Vietnamese

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

All standing as they are able as we hear The Gloria, in Latin

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and national by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

Read by Carl Mueller, in Dutch

Lector A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Psalm 104:25-35, 37

Read by Marimal Almodiel, in Tagalog

O Lord, how manifold are your works! * in wisdom you have made them all;

the earth is full of your creatures.
Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, * creatures both small and great.
There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.
All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; *
may the Lord rejoice in all his works.
He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the Lord.
Bless the Lord, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

The Second Lesson

Read by Rebecca Rojas, in Spanish

Lector                    A Reading from the first Letter of Paul to the Corinthians. 12:3b-13
Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

The word of the Lord.

The Holy Gospel

Proclaimed in Spanish by The Reverend Jennifer Wagner Pavia

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

20:19-33

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.” But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.” Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.” Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Reflection from Dean Randolph Hollerith, read by The Rev Julie D Bryant

The Nicene Creed prayed by all, in the languages of their hearts

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

The Prayers of the People

Bill Liesman, in Mandarin or Cantonese

For Christians in every neighborhood, community, and city: May your Holy Spirit inspire us to pray, to give, to love, to serve, and to proclaim the gospel, that the name of Jesus Christ might be glorified around the world.

Rebecca Rojas, in Spanish

For our local, state, and federal governments: God, help our elected officials as they allocate the necessary resources for combatting this pandemic. Help them to provide more tests.

Carl Mueller, in Dutch

...we pray for all medical professionals dealing daily with the intense pressures of this crisis. Grant them resilience in weariness, discernment in diagnosis, and compassion upon compassion as they care. We thank you for the army of researchers working steadily and quietly towards a cure - give them clarity, serendipity and unexpected breakthrough today.

Frank Rojas, in Portuguese

For workers in a variety of industries facing layoffs and financial hardship: God, keep them from panic.

Yvette Jackson, in French

...we remember those living in coronavirus hotspots and those currently in isolation. May they know your presence in their isolation, your peace in their turmoil and your patience in their waiting. Prince of Peace, you are powerful and merciful; let this be their prayer.

Marimel Almodiel, in Tagalog

We pray that our graduates stay focused on God's path and may they strive for excellence in everything they do.

Tess Crawford, in English

For the Navajo Nation, and the people of all First Nations, that they receive the physical and social support needed to fight and recover from the current pandemic.

Richard Ross, in Vietnamese

We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Tess Crawford, in English

That all individuals strive for justice and peace among all people and respect the rights and dignity of every human being. Amen.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

Celebrant                      Acknowledging our longing to be physically close to one another, to share the blessing of Communion in common, and praying that when we do so, we remember this longing for you.

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as you are already there, and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer, in Maori

The Blessings

Navajo Blessing 'Walking in Beauty', read in English by Deb Mitchell

Yá'át'ééh

Today I will walk out, today everything unnecessary will leave me,

I will be as I was before, I will have a cool breeze over my body.

I will have a light body, I will be happy forever, nothing will hinder me.

I walk with beauty before me. I walk with beauty behind me.

I walk with beauty below me. I walk with beauty above me.

I walk with beauty around me. My words will be beautiful.

In beauty all day long may I walk through the returning seasons,

May I walk on the trail marked with pollen,

May I walk with dew about my feet,

May I walk with beauty before me,

May I walk with beauty behind me,

May I walk with beauty below me,

May I walk with beauty above me.
May I walk with beauty all around me,
May I walk in old age wandering on a trail of beauty, lively,
May I walk in old age wandering on a trail of beauty,
Living again, may I walk.
My words will be beautiful.
My brothers and sisters, may God Bless you.

Southern Robe Pikuni Blessing,
proclaimed by Eagle Woman, The Rev Cn Dr Mary Crist

Greetings, my relatives. I am Eagle Woman. I am from the Southern Robe Pikuni.

*Creator, help us.
Hear our cry.
Listen to us Father Sun.
Watch over all the people.
Make us holy.
We believe. Amen.*

[Note from Mary Crist: Literally, the last line is "That's enough." God was represented by the Sun. We dd not worship the sun, but we recognized it as the most powerful partner to Mother Earth.]
